

A Free Ticketed Event

Grounded

A Festival of Earthy Ideas

Mount Roland
LAND CARE

PROGRAMME

➤ TICKETS (for part or all) ESSENTIAL ◀

Saturday April 29th:

9.30 – 11.30 am: Tree-planting at the Sheffield Transfer Station, East Victoria Street, along the Dodder Rivulet. Book first. Bring water, gloves, sturdy shoes and weather-appropriate clothing. Also bring your favourite planting tool (if you have one). Standard tools available. A free-lunch token will be given to tree planters for use at Gowrie Park.

At Wilder Tasmania, Gowrie Park (food and drink for sale). Book at MRLC website.

12.30 pm Locals Expo: short, earthy reports on some local projects

1.15 pm Lisa Cawthen: Unlocking the Secret World of Bats

2.30 pm Rees Campbell: Wild Tasmanian Foods

3.30 pm Locals Expo: more short and earthy reports on local projects

4.00 pm LIVE MUSIC: Amber Rae Slade and Isabel Rumble

6.00 pm Day one concludes

Sunday April 30th:

9.30 – 11.30 am: Tree-planting at the Sheffield Transfer Station, East Victoria Street, along the Dodder Rivulet. Book first. Bring water, gloves, sturdy shoes and weather-appropriate clothing. Also bring your favourite planting tool (if you have one). Standard tools available. A free-lunch token will be given to tree planters for use at Gowrie Park.

At Wilder Tasmania, Gowrie Park (food and drink for sale). Book at MRLC website.

12.30 pm Sarah Lloyd: The Exquisite Life of Slime Moulds and How To Find Them
(byo torch or head lamp, and a hand lens if you have one)

1.45 pm Theresa Chapman: The Entanglement of Soil Ecology

2.45 pm News from Mount Roland Land Care

3.00 pm LIVE MUSIC: Pete Cornelius Trio

4.30 pm Festival concludes

This is a FREE, family-friendly event. Meals, snacks and drinks for sale at Wilder Tasmania (veg, vegan and meat options). Donations to Mount Roland Land Care can be made at the MRLC Donations Box.

Brought to you by Mount Roland Land Care.

<https://www.mountrolandlandcare.org.au/>

This Festival received grant funding from the Australian Government in partnership with the Foundation for Rural & Regional Renewal and is supported by Kentish Council

